What's the difference between a photographer and a photographer? The difference between a photographer and a photographer is that a photographer takes pictures while a photographer creates pictures. The Belfast Telegraph has learned that the Irish Mayors and Mayors for the European Union (EU) Anti-Semitism Conference will take place at the weekend in the Cregagh area of the city. However, neither Mayors Emma Subhramaniam or Paul Connolly are expected to be in attendance. In 2016, the then Mayor of North Belfast and now Deputy Mayor for Culture and Sport John Finucane also withdrew from the conference. Concern has been raised over the inclusion of the meeting on a Cregagh website and social media channels. A message was posted on Facebook with the headline 'EU Anti-Semitism Conference coming to Belfast this weekend' which went on to say: "These are the dates and times of the weekend: Friday 11th-12th October 2018. "The venue is on Baillie Street, Cregagh, Belfast. For more information, check our website www.belfastcregagh.co.uk or follow us on Facebook " When contacted, the organisers did not respond to requests for comment. However, a date was later added which reads: "In January 2017 we held a cross-Atlantic conference on Anti-Semitism in Europe. In 2017 we will be hosting our second conference which will be held from 11-12 October 2018. The conference will be taking place in Cregagh, Belfast. We are delighted that we will be working with the Irish Institute and Lagan House in Cregagh." Lagan House is a non-for-profit organisation which welcomes Jews and Muslims, primarily for educational purposes. A Google search shows more than 100,000 results when searching for the location of the conference. On its website, Lagan House said "in 2017 we will be hosting our second conference which will be held from 11-12 October 2018. The conference will be taking place in Cregagh, Belfast. We are delighted that we will be working with the Irish Institute and Lagan House in Cregagh." It added that the conference would be free of charge and no registration was required.
