⬜ The TrustWatch Toolbar for Internet Explorer (TWWIE) is a toolbar that detects and alerts you if a web site is known to exchange confidential or personal information. ⬜ TrustWatch is a free program, not a virus, and not a piece of spyware. ⬜ You can set it to warn you if a site looks suspicious (the same as visiting an untrustworthy or malicious site), or if a site is known for exchanging personal or confidential information. ⬜ Once installed, TrustWatch will verify a web site on every visit to see if it has been verified. If the site has been verified, TrustWatch will indicate the verifier in the address bar and display the TrustWatch logo in the status bar. If the site has not been verified, TrustWatch will warn you. ⬜ TrustWatch is available in English, Spanish, French, German, Italian, Dutch, Russian, Portuguese, Polish, Czech, Swedish, Finnish, Danish, Norwegian, Hungarian, Romanian, Slovak, Bulgarian, Ukrainian, Czech and Chinese. ⬜ TrustWatch Toolbar for Internet Explorer - FAQs: TrustWatch Toolbar for Internet Explorer FAQs: ⬜ How to install: ⬜ Double click on the downloaded file named TWWIE.exe, or run the setup.exe file you downloaded. What's New in the TrustWatch Toolbar?

The TrustWatch Toolbar provides a solution for web site identification and verification. The tool helps identify and verify a web site's identity before providing your personal or confidential information. This toolbar verifies domain names and IP addresses, including Internet Service Provider (ISP) IP addresses. The TrustWatch tool's ability to verify a domain name and verify a web site's identity by comparing site data to a list of verified sites is unmatched. You can verify a web site using the TrustWatch Toolbar by visiting the TrustWatch web site, searching for a verified web site, or by using the toolbar and the TrustWatch web site. The TrustWatch Toolbar will provide you with real-time confirmation of a verified web site. You can also verify web sites, by comparing the site data to the database of known fraudulent sites, which may be the result of a "spoofing" effort by a malicious individual or group. The TrustWatch Toolbar helps you quickly verify if a web site is a verified web site, provides real-time reports of suspect web sites, and allows you to submit a bogus site for inclusion in the database. The TrustWatch Toolbar may be used with any Internet browser that supports browser-based active content. The TrustWatch Toolbar does not alter your current web browser.
