Estimado Cleric, So we are in the final weeks and I have prepared all sorts of things that I believe we need. However, there is one thought which keeps returning in my mind and that is, generally, the aspects of celibacy. It is a dangerous thing when we stray from the path, a strong pull with many unseen dangers for the small minded. How will you manage to avoid falling into this trap? The most important and obvious is the goddess Duskmara. Then the queen of gold teb, the goddess Celamoy, who is also known as Dawnstar. Then the goddess of vision and the darkness, Ahariva. The goddess of life, passion and sorrow, Tarissa the goddess of the south. There is a goddess of the tree of life, her name is Teer. The son of the old god Tesserer who started to chant the secrets of immortality and it begun to spread all over the lands, his name is Ahkingra. Lastly, the king of the west, the god of death and all things that take you away from the life, his name is Horriklos. These are our gods and you must understand that we are doing some great things for them, the things that we are doing, not all who dare are firm devotees, those who raise a hand in the hands of the gods are condemning
