The Anders brief is not sufficient to alert Appellant to the possibility that the Commonwealth seeks to argue that a violation of his jury trial rights occurred. As such, we are unable to address this argument in any meaningful way. We conclude that the Anders brief fails to meet the briefing requirements for a

Rule 2119(f) Statement and that the Brief inadequately addresses all of the issues we could reasonably identify. -7- J. A02034/14 For the foregoing reasons, we agree with appointed counsel that the appeal is without merit.³ Accordingly, counsel has certified that after a review of the record, he is able to conclude that this appeal is wholly frivolous. Judgment of sentence affirmed. ³ We need not address counsel's second assertion that the trial court permitted the cumulative prejudicial effect of hearsay testimony to create a manifestly unreasonable sentence because there is no challenge to the manifestly unreasonable sentence. -8- Sports Complex at Atwater Village to be Demolished Sports Complex at Atwater Village to be Demolished By ParkBoardNews.com Sports Complex at Atwater Village will be demolished after a planned sale agreement for the property fails to materialize. The massive structure, which stands on 0.52 acre, features a four-lane running track, a partially completed three-story gymnasium, a baseball stadium, three outdoor swimming pools, and clubhouse. It was built over the past 15 years with public funds in an attempt to mitigate the perceived overcrowding of the neighboring Recreational Sports complex. The property's owner, Pacific Real
