Feb 1, 2020 - stairdesigner 6.50g. Eighth of a series of the stair designs, and the first to have four rails at the foot. It was a work for a builder who wanted to have a design that's fun and easy to do. It was a design that would produce an impression of a staircase without any lumber. Just the rails. The stair design is made from a lightweight material called linoleum. It has been used in many brick projects, but this design was made in a staircase alone. It has been an eighth of the series of the stair
